We at Furnitureland South appreciate your interest, your business and your continued loyalty. Without customers like you, we couldn't be the business we are: proudly family-owned, offering the widest selection of home décor imaginable — everything from boutique to basic — at the best price for you.

Though High Point and the furniture industry underwent tumultuous change over the past few decades, we have survived; furthermore, Furnitureland South has stayed right here in High Point. We've remained here through the years because we believe in the perseverance of the community and the industry, and, at the same time, we found ourselves strengthened by the faith you showed in supporting our business year after year.

Our mission at Furnitureland South is to bring your vision of an ideal home to life with exquisite, exceptionally crafted furniture at an outstanding value paired with world-class service, from our in-house Design Consultants to the White Glove Delivery of your perfect piece right where it belongs in your home.

Your commitment to us helps us fulfill that mission, and we hope you keep Furnitureland South in mind as your vision expands in the years to come.

Again, all of us here at Furnitureland South thank you for your continued patronage.
